

Sinclair Broadcasting must not be allowed to to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary just days before the election. This is clearly an example media consolidation gone bad.

Sinclair is obligated by law to serve the public interest because it uses the public airwaves free of charge. I don't believe we need this kind of action for our democracy. Instead let's get news about issues that matter.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
